OTHER SERVICES

We meet our participants at JFK airport and keep tracking our students safety after they arrive in USA by e-mail or phone calls and pay much attention to the job and housing conditions of our participants. If the job or housing option turns to be fake, we immediately contact with our partners in US and try to find alternative option. Our program sponsor has 24-hours toll-free help-lines with Russian speaking operators. They record all phone calls and provide participants with all the necessary assistance. Students can also always call our Moscow office.

Our American partner is INTRAX Cultural Exchange.
