WISE Abroad in partnership with YMCA International

Services

International Student Exchange (Work and Travel USA, Camp America) and other services not related to SWT

Fees

Work and Travel USA fee for students is $1200 (according to the item 1 of the agreement between WISE Abroad and the Student). In addition, students pay $131 fee to the US Embassy, and the registration fee of 2000 rubles. According to the item 3.2 of the agreement between WISE Abroad and Continent, $350 of the total program charge ($1200) is the service fee payable to Continent.

If a student does not obtain a visa, all amount of the program fee is refunded to student, except $150 and the fee paid to the US Embassy (according to the item 3.7 of the agreement between Continent and the Student).

Other Services

According to the item 1E of the agreement between WISE Abroad and the Student, WISE Abroad is responsible to meet students at the airport.

The check up on the students during their stay in the USA, including job and housing, is performed by WISE Abroad and their partner YMCA, according to the agreement between YMCA and the Student, agreement between WISE Abroad and the Student, and Student Manual.

If the job and/or housing falls through, the support to the students residing in the USA is provided by WISE Abroad, according to the agreement between WISE Abroad and the Student.
