

PROFY - Center of Professional Orientation

Address: Russia, Moscow, 119234, Leninskie Gory, Moscow State University, 1/3, office 530-A.
Phone: 642-0805
E-mail: ciemgu@nnt.ru
Web Site:

Business started in 2000

Services

All these services are provided to all students without exception:

- Testing and oral interviews students' English level and the real intentions to enroll in the program
- Validation of documents provided by the students for enrolling in the program (calls to universities on the telephone number listed in the certificate and official guides), trusting conversation with the parents / relatives of the students to identify the true causes of the participation in the program
- Booking air tickets at a discount 20%
- The acquisition of additional medical insurance for travel period in the U.S., not covered by dates DS-2019 form
- Insurance in case of visa denial or serious illness of the student / relatives
- Accommodation for the students during a visit to an interview at the Embassy (where necessary)
- A pre-departure orientation
- Individual package containing detailed instructions route from the international arrival airport in the US to work place, including the schedule and cost of tickets for domestic flights, buses, trains
- Individual approach to each student, including supervision throughout the program: assistance in resolving disputes with the employer; seeking additional work, reminding the students about the update data in SEVIS system, in the event of such changes, providing information to the parents of the students as its income from the sponsor.

Fees

Processing fees – 3,900 RUB. Fee is not refundable.

Students pay for air-tickets after obtaining a visa in accordance with tariffs carrier (airline).

Students can use our booking airline tickets, and can make reservations and buy tickets themselves. We are not obliged students to buy tickets only through our agency, but require that students give us full information about the details of the return flight if the students acquire the tickets themselves.

Other Services

We provide detailed instructions how to get to the employer from the international airport, including the schedule and tickets' prices on domestic flights, trains, and buses.

Work and housing offered is carefully checked by sponsors, and good contracts prolonged for the next season. However, if a student wants in addition (second) work, we are informing him of existing opportunities by e-mail.