Fees

The standard charge for the WAT program in 2009 is 19,900 RUB. This includes prescreening (English tests), medical insurance, DS-2019 form issue, information support 24/7 both in Russia and the US.

Job offers will cost 5000 rubles.

Air tickets will cost according to the tariffs and flight dates.

We refund from 80 to 90 percent of the money the students pay to us if they do not obtain visas.

Other Services

Camp America representatives meet students at the airports throughout the country. WAT participants are sometimes met by their employers if necessary.

In case of problems, we contact our US partner companies. They are always ready to help students in any situation.
